Monday 8th November 2021 | Creating and Running a PPI Group

10:00 - 13:00 UK Time | Online (Zoom)

About

Creating and running a PPI Group - Discusses how to advertise and recruit patient and public members, organise your first meeting and how to keep your PPI group running successfully and sustainably.

- Are you struggling with where to begin in setting up a PPI group?
- Are you wondering how to keep an existing panel going?
- Unsure if a panel is the best means of conducting PPI in your research?

Objectives

- Leave with a plan for your new or existing PPI group
- Know how to create adverts and role descriptions for your panel
- Understand how to keep running your group and make it sustainable.

Tutor

This course will be delivered by Carol Porteous, the Patient and Public Involvement and Engagement Advisor from Edinburgh Clinical Research Facility (CRF). She will be joined by members of the CRF PPI Panel, who will provide a public/patient perspective on the themes discussed.

Cost

- Student rate (Matriculation Card required) = £40
- NHS Lothian/University of Edinburgh rate = £60
- Other academic/NHS rate = £90

There is a cancellation date of 25th October 2021. You will be charged if you cancel after this date.
